

In recent years, web logs, or “blogs,” have given food writers a chance to self-publish regularly online. We've collected some that are more than mere recipe, or “what-I-ate-last night-type”, blogs—sites that either provide information that is useful to other food writers or simply demonstrate great writing or design. Sometime, when time permits, we'll add all the hyperlinks—meanwhile you can copy-and-paste into your browser's URL field.

Obviously, this list is ever-changing. No doubt, many of these blogs have moved or disappeared since we began collecting them (if you come across any, please let us know so we can update the list <Mailto:gary@onthetable.us>. To receive our monthly newsletter of new, or newly-discovered, food blogs—as well as websites of interest to food writers—you can subscribe to our free newsletter on our home page <<http://onthetable.us/index.shtml>>.
